CRIMINAL NO. 94-127-13

v.

SALVATORE BRUNETTI
Defendant.

DEFENDANT'S APPEAL TO THE COURT FOR A RECONSIDERATION TO THE DENIAL OF HIS MOTION TO REDUCE SENTENCE PURSUANT TO 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(1)(A)(i)

HONORABLE JUDGE J. KEARNEY,

I, SALVATORE BRUNETTI, defendant in the above matter respectfully comes before you in Pro-Se Manner appealing the denial of my Motion to Reduce Sentence Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(1)(A)(i).

YOUR HONOR, over twenty seven (27) years ago I was convicted to the charges set forth against me and as of today I am not at all disputing my involvement. But now here we are almost three (3) decades later and I am bewildered by how a Court's decision of denial was executed so swiftly without any current evaluations completed and the employment of the Oppositions statements which are easily found to be untrue, clear misrepresentation and only duplications of printed matter from my files commencement in 1994.

I fully understand that the Court's are inundated with a backlog of cases due to the Nation's strained work force due to the COVID-19 Pandemic, but the doesn't justify the improper evaluation of my circumstances. I am respectfully asking the Court to please take a step back and put all pretenses aside and examine what the Opposition provided to the Court which the Court unfortunately rubber stamped and didn't once even see the muddled facts in front of them.

This information brought forth to the Court was over twenty six (26) years old. In no way do I want this Appeal to be misconstrued as personal criticism of YOUR HONOR'S decision, I am ceremoniously bringing clarity to content you may have reviewed which wasn't suitable assessed under "Today's" circumstances of my crimes, also of my rehabilitation which is now over Two Hundred Seventy Two (272) months later, along with my current age of 73 years old (with Life Threatening Health concerns even before the COVID-19 Pandemic was thrown into the mix) turns my original sentence now into a "Life Sentence".

As you review this Appeal I have brought to your attention a few major key points so I don't waste any valuable time of YOUR HONORS or the COURTS, but there are multiple misrepresentations.

One last side bar I need to bring to YOUR HONORS and the Courts attention is I find it very concerning that within only a few hours after YOUR HONORS decision that was filed with the Court on July 31, 2020 on the denial of my Compassionate Release Motion my case was front page headlines in local papers and electronic media. One has to ask in all fairness, why ? I understand that this is public information, but don't you think a leak or a tip from someone in the process was looking for recognition or revenge? I am in NO way insinuating YOUR HONOR in this process, but as you read through this appeal and you see that the information supplied to you by the opposition is greatly flawed.

To me it is very strange with everything else being paramount in the news that a lowly Associate would make such notariety within that short spanse.

What's more interesting is that the week before the Court had decided on my case there was an article in the Wall Street Journal dated July 22, 2020 on page A-11 of a television review of "Cracking Down on La Cosa Nostra" written by John Anderson and in the second to last paragraph there is a quote that says "The team behind Mr. Giuliana, and Mr. Giuliani himself (who takes a few knocks from his old colleagues for having been a publicity hound". (The Article is attached to this Motion).

Again, I am in no way stating your involvement in anything, but what I am trying to bring to light here is that how quickly my decision was pushed through the legal process without any proper judicial review and to see the possible bias spin without any fact checking on the Court's part. So, what I am ceremoniously bringing to your attention is that the content presented to YOUR HONOR wasn't suitably assessed under "Today's" circumstances of my Crimes, my rehabilitation now over Two Hundred and Seventy Two (272) months later and along with my current age of 73 years old (with life threatening health concerns even before the COVID-19 Pandemic was thrown into the mix) turns my original sentence into a "Life Sentence".

ARGUMENTS REGARDING RECONSIDERATION OF MOTION TO REDUCE SENTENCE PURSUANT TO 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(1)(A)(i):

I. MR. BRUNETTI'S STATUS IN ORGANIZED CRIME:

On Page 1 of 22 of YOUR HONORS denial dated July 31, 2020, in the fifth line down it states (regarding Mr. Brunetti) "a trusted forty-six year old "MEMBER" of Philadelphia's former organized crime boss John Stanfa's La Cosa Nostra."

Now if you refer to attached Page 3 of Mr. Brunetti's Pre-sentencing Report conducted circa 1994, in Paragraph 12, Line Two it categorizes Mr. Brunetti as an "ASSOCIATE".

We all know that there is a great difference between a "MEMBER" and an "ASSOCIATE". Also the connotation being presented to the Court one would almost take the word "MEMBER" as a Made Member of an Organized Crime family, don't you agree ? But if we go back to the basics, Webster's dictionary also here is the clarity which is the truth of Mr. Brunetti's status back in 1994.

The definition of "Member" is as follows: "A distinct part of a whole and a person belonging to some group."

The definition of "Associate" is as follows: "having less than full status."

So right out of the gate and not even further than the first page of the Court's decision a blatant error was provided to the Court to glamorize Mr. Brunetti's involvement. Again, Mr. Brunetti doesn't claim to be innocent, but his "Association" was at a much lower level and his involvement was not a drastic as the opposition is trying to portray.

II. MR. BRUNETTI IN 1994 AND NOW MR. BRUNETTI IN 2020:

Again on Page 1 of 22 of YOUR HONORS denial dated July 31, 2020, the seventh line down "a mature man (Mr. Brunetti was in his mid-forties) to a forty year sentence in 1997. Like all of us, he faces illness which come with getting older. But until the COVID-19 Pandemic, he did not move for compassionate release."

There is no doubt that Mr. Brunetti was middle aged when he was sentenced and his health wasn't a concern. Now fast forward to today, twenty seven (27) years later and Mr. Brunetti is 73 years old with medical records as thick as a Leonard Tolstoy novel but filled with facts, not fiction. He has major medical complications. Is he dying right now, no! But at any time he can be exposed to the COVID-19 Pandemic in prison which could complicate his medical conditions and you know that could EASILY lead to death.

So for the Opposition to say "illness which come with getting older" is a far stretch from what his medical condition really is. Yes, he has arthritis like any of his counterparts of similar age, but if you take the time to review his medical records you will clearly see his major health issues are dealing with vital organs that if he gets exposed to COVID-19 or any other new virus to surface, he has little chance in this environment to survive. His release to home confinement would include his children's care and strict supervision.

III. MR. BRUNETTI'S MOST RECENT WIFE:

Again on Page 1 of 22 of YOUR HONORS denial dated July 31, 2020, the last four lines say " we agree with his most recent wife's concern he is a "violent person who couldn't change." "He presents too great a danger of violence to the public and his release is not warranted under Congress's sentencing factors.

This quote is loaded with blatant lies as well as an incorrect interpretation of CURRENT Congressional sentencing factors.

First in reference to Mr. Brunetti's "most recent wife's concern", please refer to attachment of an email from Mr. Brunetti's stepson Robert Cline who obtained a copy of a recent affidavit from Mr. Brunetti's wife, Denise Ganci. The affidavit is dated as recent as August 22, 2020 stating the complete opposition of what was presented to YOUR HONOR. The last three lines of the letter end with "We are confident that he is not a danger to society and we would like him to come home and spend his last remaining years with his family and grandchildren. We ask that you show him MERCY and let him come home to his family who misses and loves him."

Do to the constraints of timeliness of filing appeals, Robert Cline has emailed a copy of the signed affidavit to YOUR HONOR and Mr. Brunetti is awaiting the original to come in the mail, which he will immediately forward to you once he is in possession of it.

Now to refer back to the last line of YOUR HONOR'S denial, where it states "his release is not warranted under Congress's sentencing factors." There are many cases filled with case law that would easily show that that statement is completely false. But it is easier for the Court to please refer to the most recent Act of Congress that was passed called the CARES ACT OF 2020. It is a written law with the exact wording of "Inmates who have not had any violence in their record for over five (5) years are qualified for the benefits of the Cares Act, which would be early release.

In addition, since he totally qualifies for early release under the CARES ACT 2020 for not having any violence in the past five (5) years, he also qualifies for his time served to get early release.

He has completed over twenty seven (27) years in prison and the guidelines passed by Congress under the Cares Act 2020 is that you can be eligible for early release if you served two-thirds (2/3) of your sentence. The math is simple, he has done 27 years. So two-thirds of 40 is 27.33. So with the time served he immediately qualifies to be released under those provisions of the Cares Act 2020. Now if you include his accredited good behavior time, that catapults his time way over the base line range for him to be immediately released.

Another factor of the Cares Act 2020 clearly states health concerns. The health concerns were implemented by Congress to assist elderly inmates getting Home Confinement so that their life would not be in danger to an environment like prison that could easily be infected with the COVID-19 or another Pandemic type outbreak.

IV. CASE LAW - UNITED STATES VS. HOLLOWAY,
68 F. Supp. 3d 310 (E.D.N.Y. 2014):

In a recent Case, United States vs. Juan Ledezma-Rodriguez, 2020 WL 3971517, 3:00-CR-00071, On June 1, 2020, through counsel, Ledezma reached out to the Bureau of Prisons, asking for early release under 18 U.S.C. 3582. He argued. "(1) the fact he would not have received his sentence under modern law; (2) his twenty years incarcerated; (3) his rehabilitation; (4) his risk of catching COVID-19 in prison constituted extraordinary and compelling reasons justifying release." Ledezma then filed his motion for relief under 18 U.S.C. 3582 in District Court. The government, "citing this Court's prior rulings on compassionate release motions and the "facts of this case, "the Government declined to make or "repeat" any specific arguments."

Ledezma Exhausted his administration rights which then the Court determined that Ledezma satisfied the gate-keeping provision because thirty days have passed since the BOP received his request. His exhaustion of administrative rights meant that the Court could address the merits.

Now with the Extraordinary and Compelling reasons, the Court noted that Congress never defined what is "extraordinary and compelling." The Court noted that the commission provided a list of specific examples such as "an elderly inmates declining health". The Court also included a catch-all if "there exists in the defendant's case an extraordinary and compelling reason other than, or in combination with, "the" examples described. Further the United States Sentencing Commission never amended their guidelines after the First Step Act because they do not have a quorum of voting members to change them. Given this, Courts have determined that the Commission lacks an applicable policy statement regarding when a Court can grant a compassionate release. Because of that, Courts have determined that the Court can determine whether any extraordinary and compelling reasons other than those delineated in USSG 1B1.13 warrant granting relief.

1. SENTENCING DISPARITY:

The Court determined that Ledezma's sentence was unjust and having served in prison since 2000, Ledezma would be eligible for immediate release. "The Court understands the importance of finality in criminal proceedings. Even so, justice has a role too."

2. REHABILITATION:

Ledezma also argued that his substantial rehabilitation constituted an extraordinary and compelling reason. the Court noted that "Rehabilitation of the defendant alone shall not be considered" sufficiently extraordinary and compelling to justify compassionate release. Yet a "statute should be construed so that effect is given to all it's provisions...This means that for the word "alone" to do any work as it must the statute allows Courts to consider rehabilitation as part of a compassionate release motion. Thus, several Courts, including this one, have found a defendant's rehabilitation to be part of the extraordinary and compelling reasons favoring release."

The Court noted that Ledezma has not incurred an infraction since 2014 and the B.O.P. has downgraded his security classification as well. He also received the equivalent of a high school diploma and took advantage of the programming until it was shut down.

3. COVID-19

The Court indicated that Ledezma's prison had two cases of the virus. But the Court also noted this public health crisis was difficult to control in prison facilities and that a member of the prison population was more likely to contract COVID-19 than a free person. "Thus, the presence of a once-in-a-hundred years pandemic in and around defendant's facility cuts in favor of his release."

4. 3553(a) FACTORS:

The Court also required to consider if compassionate release comported with the 3553(a) factors. The Court noted that Ledezma was forty seven years old and was half-likely to be convicted of a crime today since a sentence imposed today would be weaker now and he had already served a lengthy sentence.

The Court Granted the compassionate release as requested and reduced the rest of Ledezma's Sentence to time served.

YOUR HONOR, I could load this appeal up with Case law and make it into a much larger document than it has to. Therefore, I am adding only a small blurb from another case to cement my case.

In the "Booker" case, the Courts found that Congress wants the Courts to reduce unusually long sentences, and to reduce sentences where amended guidelines suggest shorter sentences. Thus, it is now proper for the Court to consider the fact that the Guidelines have changed from mandatory to discretionary in determining whether to grant compassionate release."

YOUR HONOR, now lets circle back to my twenty seven (27) years in prison which I don't deny I deserved when sentenced as a middle aged man. But now I am 73 years old, I have no infractions within the last twenty seven years involving any violence. I do have one infraction for taking extra hamburgers out of chow hall, so would you constitute that as "violent"? I wouldn't.

My attached accomplishments of attending so many classes involving Cognitive Behavior, Attitude Adjustment, Correcting Criminal Mindset and other educational courses along with Arts and Crafts that are attached and also described in my first Motion submitted to YOUR COURT, shows that I didn't sit around and watch television in prison for the past twenty seven years, I changed myself for only the better.

Now going back to Ledezma's Case, if I were convicted today under current Sentencing Guidelines and along with my advanced age of 73, my sentence would drastically be less. Therefore the Court should understand the importance of finality in my criminal proceedings and consider a reduction in my sentence to Home Confinement.

As you can see from my educational transcripts and the letter from my ex-wife. along with my consistent good behavior pattern for over the past twenty seven years, you can see that i am clearly not in the same mindset as I was when I frist came to prison. Which also shows you that any character reference of my past behavior that is mentioned in my current denial of Compassionate Release or Reduction of Sentence to Home Confinement is from up to three decades ago. YOUR HONOR, nor the opposition ordered any type of updated reports on me from either the B.O.P. or even a recent psychological report ot reflect my current mental health which is clear of criminal thinking and any type of violent characteristics.

If the Court would also look at my classification in my prison records, you would see the drastic change in my behavior for the better which landed at a very low level security prison, F.C.I. Fort Dix, N.J.

The COVID-19 Pandemic at F.C.I. Fort Dix is increasing in cases by the day. In fact, just this past month the prison has opened two (2) new quarantine buildings for the new COVID-19 cases.

By my sentence being reduced to Home Confinement, i would be living at my brothers house where I would be in a safe environment and have a very little chance of contracting such a virus compared to living in a building like I do at F.C.I. Fort Dix with over Three Hundred (300) inmates in one building that is an open dorm building, not individual cells.

Therefore, as I get even older and my health issues gradually increase, I can at least be in an environment at my brothers house to protect myself and not get sicker from my surrounding elements.

In conclusion, I am seeking a downgrade of my sentence to finish out my time on Home Confinement, due to my age of 73, my health conditions and to integrate back into society with my loving family in my short remaining years.

YOUR HONOR, my life is in YOUR hands and I pray you are able to see that I am a man of past wrongdoings, but a changed man of respecting life and others. I am concluding with the following heartfelt letter to you.

For nearly three decades I have waited for that second chance and I'm still waiting with hope. They have a saying behind these walls "it is what it is". I do not believe that for one second, my belief, it is what you make it.

For many years, I have done all that I could to better understand my short comings, and to address my faults, so to better fit into our society. I believe I have achieved this, and now if allowed will fit into society as a productive member. From the amount of programming I have done over the many years, from the 9 month Live In The Code Program to Criminal Thinking Courses that reformed my way of thinking, and the self-help classes that dealt in self examination to over come a lot of my negative ways of thinking. To the many classes I have taught and learned from.

I believe a person can change if he has the right attitude, and given the incentive. In the last 27 years that I have been in prison, I have not committed one act of violence. The realization that I have caused so much pain and hurt to others in my past causes great grief and regret.

If I thought the way I thought 27 years ago, then I have wasted the last twenty seven (27) years of my life.

I have truly changed as a man for the better. My hope and spirit is unbroken for the second chance.

Again YOUR HONOR, this is submitted only in full respect to you to bring light to how my Appeal was not given proper overview. I thank you for your time and only hope the best comes out of this.

Respectfully Submitted,

MEMORANDUM

KEARNEY, J.

July 31, 2020

Over the last four months, hundreds of incarcerated persons around the country have moved for compassionate release from their final prison sentences based on their perceived risk of harm from the spread of COVID-19 in our federal prisons. We appreciate this fear. We today evaluate a seventy-three-year-old man seeking compassionate release after being convicted of participating in violent crimes as a trusted forty-six-year old member of Philadelphia's former organized crime boss John Stanfa's La Cosa Nostra. He provided experience with bombs. Judge Buckwalter carefully considered the evidence and sentenced the mature man to a forty-year sentence in 1997. Like all of us, he faces illness which come with getting older. But until the COVID-19 pandemic, he did not move for compassionate release. After carefully analyzing his motion for release, and while he may possibly demonstrate extraordinary and compelling reasons for release based on combination of the risks presented by his medical condition in a prison addressing COVID-19 spread, we agree with his most recent wife's concern he is a "violent person who couldn't change." He presents too great a danger of violence to the public and his release is not warranted under Congress's sentencing factors. We decline to reduce Judge Buckwalter's final sentence.

RE: Salvatore BRUNETTI

6. On May 15, 1996, following a trial before the Honorable Ronald L. Buckwalter, a jury found Salvatore Brunetti guilty of Counts One and Two (racketeering Acts One, Four(A), and Five).
7. The status of the defendants in this case is as follows: 14 defendants have entered pleas of guilty; 10 defendants have been convicted following a jury trial; the jury could not reach a decision as to two defendants, one of whom is scheduled to be retried as to the specific counts where no decision was reached; and one defendant was acquitted on all counts.
8. The Sentencing Reform Act of 1984 is applicable in this case since the offense occurred between October of 1990 and March 16, 1994. The edition of the manual used to calculate the Sentencing Guidelines in this report is that incorporating amendments effective November 1, 1996, as there are no ex post facto issues.

The Offense Conduct

The Racketeering Enterprise

9. The Enterprise set forth in Superseding Indictment No. Two comprised the John Stanfa family of La Cosa Nostra (LCN). This existed from about October 1990 through on or about March 16, 1994 in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania and elsewhere. The Enterprise was a group of individuals associated in fact, although not a legal entity, which engaged in activities which affected interstate commerce. The Enterprise existed to control, manage, finance, supervise, participate in and set policy concerning the making of money through legal and illegal means in the Philadelphia area and in part of New Jersey.
10. The Philadelphia LCN was organized in a chain of command headed by a boss. During the period of the Indictment, Anthony Piccolo acted as the temporary boss until early 1991, and thereafter John Stanfa acted as the boss. At certain times during the time period of the Indictment Joseph Ciancaglini, Jr. was the underboss. After Joseph Ciancaglini was incapacitated when he was shot on March 2, 1993, Frank Martines became the "acting underboss". While Stanfa was the boss, Piccolo functioned as the consigliere. At various times during the period charged in Superseding Indictment No. Two, Salvatore Sparacio and Vincent Albert Pagano served as caporegimes.
11. The Philadelphia LCN had soldiers who worked under the leaders of the Enterprise. Soldiers were also known as "made" members of the Enterprise. They included: Salvatore Sparacio, (before becoming a "capo"), Luigi Tripodi, Raymond

Esposito, Sergio Battaglia, Giuseppe Gallara, John Veasey, Vincent Filipelli, Gaetano Lucibello, and Gaetano Scafidi.

12. In addition to the "made" members of the Enterprise described above, the Enterprise also had associates who worked for the Enterprise under the direction of the "made" members. They included: Herbert Keller, Rosario Conti Bellocchi, Gary Tavella, Philip Colletti, Salvatore Brunetti, Salvatore Avena, Ron Mazzone, Jack Manfredi, Joseph Altimari, John Casasanto, Thomas Morrone, Giuseppe Palazzolo, Santo Bravata, Thomas Robbie, and Rod Colombo.
13. Through evidence presented at the trial of John Stanfa, et al, the structure of the Enterprise was proven. The evidence presented consisted of the testimony of certain of its members and associates and by tape recordings of conversations intercepted through court-authorized Title III wiretaps. The evidence regarding the structure of the Enterprise included the following:
14. During a conversation of December 3, 1991 between Stanfa, Piccolo, and Joseph Sadano, a member of the northern New Jersey faction of the Enterprise, Stanfa, in his role as boss, explains why he promoted a member to captain. The conversation refers to the "Mafia" and also refers to "this thing," a reference to La Cosa Nostra, and to the positions of underboss and consigliere.
15. During a conversation of September 8, 1992 between Stanfa, Piccolo, Sparacio, and Joseph Ciancaglini, Stanfa refers to having "made" some LCN members and criticizes Sparacio for not telling Stanfa he had received electronic surveillance notice.
16. John Veasey testified that he was "made" by Stanfa, with Martines, Battaglia, and Pagano present for the ceremony. Filipelli was also "made" on the same day. Stanfa explained the rules of LCN membership to Veasey and told him that Martines was the "acting underboss."
17. During a recorded conversation, Pagano told cooperating witness James Lynch that he was a capo by making a symbol with his fingers on his shoulder, indicating officer bars for the military position of captain. In the same conversation, Pagano told Lynch that he and Martines were second and third in command. Pagano continued, "If (Stanfa) goes to jail, me and him are in charge."

Racketeering Activities of the Enterprise

18. To enforce the rules of the Philadelphia LCN, to promote discipline and to ensure the continued receipt of money to the LCN, members and associates of the Philadelphia LCN

COURT REFERENCE LETTER

To Whom This May Concern,

My name is Denise Ganci (Formerly Brunetti) and I am the ex wife of Salvatore Brunetti. We have 1 child together. We've known Salvatore to be a loving, caring Father. We have stayed in touch over the years and exchanged cards and correspondence. At no time have I said that I think Salvatore Brunetti is a dangerous individual who was incapable of change. In fact it's the opposite. Salvatore has expressed his regret for what happened 27 years ago and we believe that he has been undergoing change for decades now. We are confident that he is not a danger to society and we would like him to come home and spend his last remaining years with his family and grandchildren. We ask that you show him MERCY and let him come home to his family who misses and loves him.

Best,

Denise Ganci
